

COMMUNITY

Builders merchant supports charities

Three charities have landed £1,000 windfalls from a leading builders merchant in Beckton.

Selco Builders Warehouse officially opened its new branch in Beckton Retail Park, Alpine Way, and wasted no time in making an immediate impact on the community last week.

To mark the opening of the new branch they picked Richard House Children's Hospice, in Beckton and Caritas Anchor House as winners, while the Macmillan Cancer Support Information and the Support Centre at Newham Hospital will also receive £1,000 donations.

Keith Fernett, chief executive of Caritas Anchor House, said: "There is a very high level of homelessness in Newham and the kind donation from Selco helps us deliver key services to people who need them more than ever.

"Our mission is to ensure those who walk through our doors grow in confidence and move towards leading independent lives by providing education, guidance and personal rehabilitation."

Visit selcobw.com for more information.

